THIRD QUARTER 1995
VOLUME 15 NUMBER 3

THE OFFICIAL PUBLICATION OF THE SOUVENIR CARD COLLECTORS SOCIETY

COVER (and below): Some lathe-work (enlarged 200% on cover) from the back cover of the American Bank Note Company Annual Report for 1980. The originals are printed on a heavy vellum (translucent) paper.

John Parker (1546) advises that there will be an SCCS Swap Meeting (two hours) on Saturday, 6 January 1996 during the FUN Show in Florida which is being held 4-7 January.

The 11 September 1995 issue of Linn's Stamp News includes an article, "'Eagle' print for BEP's Daly; Rolfus is new director," which indicates that a special souvenir card, featuring a "rather large engraved print of an American bald eagle perched [facing left] on the edge of a rock ledge," was distributed to attendees at a farewell dinner for outgoing BEP Director Peter H. Daly. The article suggests that it "is certain interest some souvenir card collectors...un-fortunately, the print will be hard to get. Only 146 were distributed, and all left-overs were destroyed." The print is 12" x 9" on cream card stock in red ink. "The farewell dinner program is printed in black ink by offset lithography on the reverse of the card." I have no clue why such "instant rarities" are produced, as they certainly result in frustration for some collectors. I also have no idea why your Editor has to find out about these things—directly related to the collecting interests of our membership—by reading about them in some other publication! How about it, you folks at the BEP?

I don't normally include items about non-intaglio souvenir cards or forthcoming shows in the Journal, other than the listing at the back of each issue. One reason, I don't always get it in time, another, I'm not sure that they are of interest to the membership or, if they are, that they haven't already been publicized in one of the more frequent publications, e.g., Linn's, Bank Note Reporter, Stamp Collector, etc. One such example is COLLECTORAMA, 700 West Lemon, Lakeland Civic Center, Lakeland, FL, which advises shows on 13-15 October 1995, 8-10 March 1996, and 11-13 October 1996. You may have already missed the first one by the time you get this issue.

W. M. Ziegman (1799) reports that the Rubber City Stamp Club (P.O. Box 1721, Akron, OH 44309) has produced another non-intaglio card for its 75th Anniversary and featuring the National Inventors Hall of Fame. The ANA (818 North Cascade Ave., Colorado Springs, CO 80903-3279) has a catalog, "Money Market," of items they offer which includes several souvenir cards. Two items relate to WWII and incorporate real Allied Military and/or French notes in lieu of an intaglio design.

A reminder. I am trying to produce this Journal—with complete, accurate AND current information—in a TIMELY manner which I can only due with your help. I have other obligations in my life, BUT I try to put an issue together (yes, mistakes and all!) to send to the printer by the first of the last month of the quarter—which, allowing time for printing and mailing, would put the issue in your hands by the end of the quarter for which it is intended. Therefore, ideally, I would have the input for that issue by the beginning of the second month of the quarter—thereby allowing time to get it together. Consequently, I appeal to you for HELP in reaching that goal!

In a similar vein, I would like to ask all advertisers—members and dealers—to review their ads and update them as appropriate. I would suspect that after seeing the same ad several times that some viewers might get "turned off," thus defeating their basic purpose!

I have tried to clarify the numbers and identification of the SCCS and Chapter-produced cards (see p. 35) and continue to try to make the listing of forthcoming cards as accurate as I can. If you have corrections, suggestions or new ideas, why not drop a line? A legible postcard will do.

BALPEX, along with Summer, is over, so the next big show will be ASDA-Mega Event in New York. See you there!

This is always the last page I complete before the Journal is "put-to-bed." So, GOOD NIGHT!

Greetings!

We have just completed the active summer show schedule and I was glad to meet many of our members at NAPEX, Memphis and ANA Anaheim. We had active and productive meetings at each show with a very special guest at our ANA meeting. We were honored by the visit of the new Director of the Bureau of Engraving and Printing, Mr. Larry Rolufs. He stopped by our meeting accompanied by Larry Felix who is in charge of Public Relations which includes the Souvenir Card Program. Mr. Rolufs appears to be genuinely interested in the Public Relations aspect of the Bureau and recognizes the value of the Souvenir Card in promoting the public's awareness of the BEP and its 100 year history.

The Society presented to Mr. Rolufs copies of our catalogue and latest Journal so that he can become more familiar with us and the history of the Bureau's printing of souvenir cards. Mr. Rolufs left shortly after the presentation to attend another meeting. He later appeared at the Bureau's booth and participated in their activities. He sold cards, signed autographs, pulled a Proof on the Spider Press, and participated in the lottery drawings for the Pulled Proofs. I believe he was impressed by the strong public response and participation at the lottery drawing.

During the meeting, Steve Mansatt discussed next year's program. The key piece piece of information is that the theme is "silver and gold." The folded card has been abandoned. The BEP will participate in a few new shows, including CAPEX in Canada and an Olympic show in Atlanta. At CAPEX, a die press will produce an intaglio souvenir. How it will be distributed and in what quantity has not been decided.

We presented Mike Bean, the BEP printer at the show, with a small gift as appreciation for the tremendous amount of work he does for our Society. I found an 1896 appointment for an Apprentice Bureau Printer and the subsequent acceptance letter when the printer completed his apprenticeship. I hope Mike enjoyed this small token of recognition as much as I did in finding it for him!

CAPEX. We have received confirmation of an SCCS meeting time for Sunday, 9 June 1996 at 10:00 a.m. You now have ample time to plan your attendance at the show which starts on 8 June 1996. This meeting time is very convenient for us and will allow you to attend the First Day and enjoy all the activities that will accompany it.

Enjoy your Souvenir Cards. I am looking forward to next year's program. It should be outstanding!

The 86th Convention of the International Plate Printers, Die Stampers & Engravers Union of North America (IPPDS&EU of NA) was held in Philadelphia, 11-17 June 1995. A Convention Folder was produced which contains five cards.

The folder, burgundy ink on cream colored stock, measures 8.75"x12.25" and bears a large vignette of Independence Hall (opposite page). The ABNCo eagle and lathe-work design (below) adorns the back cover.

The five, 8.5"x11" cards are as follows:

(1) "We Extend a Cordial Welcome""—Pale green ink on cream colored card stock, with an encircled portrait of Benjamin Franklin, welcoming text and the names of various union officers (page 6);

(2) "Philadelphia"—Vivid orange ink on cream colored stock, featuring vignettes of the signing of the Declaration of Independence, Christ Church, the Pennsylvania Coat of Arms, and the West End Trust Company building (page 7);

(3) "Philadelphia 1"—Blue ink on cream colored stock, featuring vignettes of Philadelphia City Hall, Independence Hall, the Liberty Bell, and William Penn meeting with Indians, accompanied by appropriate texts (page 8);

(4) "Philadelphia 25"—Purple ink on cream colored stock, with vignettes of Benjamin Franklin, George Washington at Trenton, a miniaturized version of the Declaration of Independence, and a view titled "First Reading of the Declaration of Independence" (page 9); and,

(5) "Thank You!"—Pale olive green ink on cream colored stock, with a vignette of Carpenters Hall and laudatory text.

In addition to the folder and cards, an engraved invitation (5.375" x 4.125") containing convention text and an admission ticket (5.375" x 4.375") were printed in blue on cream colored stock, as were also an engraved Dinner Menu and Insert Card listing the Union Officers and displaying the Union Logo, which both measure 5.25" x 7.5" (these items are not illustrated).

[The vignettes used are, for the most part, obvious reflections on the history of the city, with the possible exception of Washington at Trenton, although some people have "adopted" that Revolutionary War battle and related events as part of Philadelphia history.

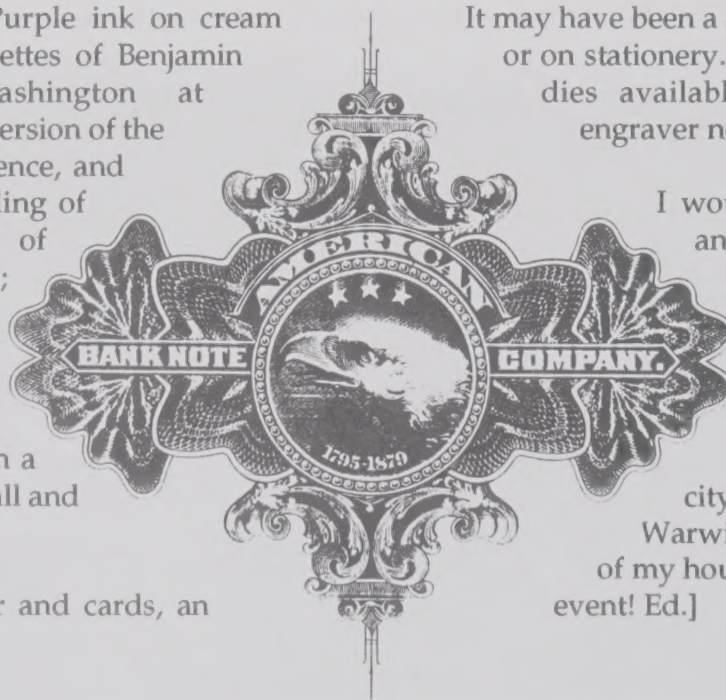

However, I am unable to ascertain why the West End Trust Co. building, which stood at the southwest corner of Broad Street and South Penn Square, diagonally opposite City Hall, was included (lower right hand corner of card no. 2, on page 7). Built in 1899, it was demolished in 1930, and replaced by another office building for what was, then, the Girard Trust Co., subsequently Girard Bank (now the Mellon/PSFS Bank).

The building had, to my knowledge, no historical or political importance and was certainly not an outstanding architectural design—whereas all of the other buildings shown not only have historical significance, but, are still standing.

It may have been a die used on a stock certificate or on stationery. Perhaps there were no other dies available. There is no source or engraver noted on the card.

I would appreciate hearing from any reader(s), who may have been involved in the selection of the vignettes, why this one was chosen.

Your Editor will have to become friends with the city's Convention Bureau. The Warwick Hotel is within two blocks of my house and I was unaware of this event! Ed.]

Philadelphia City Hall

Situated at Broad and Market Streets, Philadelphia's City Hall is the largest municipal building in the United States. Begun in 1871, it took 30 years, 88 million bricks and more than 21 million dollars to build. Designed by architect John McArthur in a style known as French Second Empire, the huge complex contains 750 rooms and covers five acres of ground. The central tower, at 510 feet, is the tallest masonry structure in the world without steel reinforcement. Engraved for American Bank Note Co., Philadelphia, Circa 1800s.

Independence Hall

Built between 1732 and 1756 as the Pennsylvania State House, the building now known as Independence Hall played a major role in the beginnings of the United States; being the site of the Continental Congress that produced the Declaration of Independence in 1776 and the Constitutional Convention of 1787. During its long life, the historic building has served not only as a seat of state and national government, but as a prison hospital during the Revolution, a diplomatic reception hall during the 1790s, and later, as Charles Wilson Peale's museum of art and science. Independence Hall was declared a National Historic Site in 1943. Engraved for Franklin Bank Note Co., N.Y., Circa 1877.

The Liberty Bell

Originally cast in London by the Whitechapel Bell Foundry in 1752, the bell was cracked during a test ringing before it could be hung in the Pennsylvania State House tower. Two Philadelphia craftsmen, PASS and STOW, recast the 2,000 pound bell which was then installed. The bell was tolled on special occasions through the years, as it was in 1835, during the funeral of Chief Justice of the Supreme Court John Marshall, when the bell suffered the famous crack that can be seen today. Since 1976, the bell has been on display in a special steel and glass pavilion outside Independence Hall. Engraved for Security Banknote Company, Philadelphia, Circa 1890s.

William Penn with the Indians

Benjamin Franklin

Engraved for American Bank Note Co.,
Philadelphia, 1859.

The Signing of the Declaration

In June 1776, the Continental Congress met in Philadelphia and appointed a committee of five of its members, John Adams, Benjamin Franklin, Thomas Jefferson, Robert Livingston and Roger Sherman, to draft a declaration stating to the world the colonists' case for separation from Great Britain. The actual text, written by Thomas Jefferson with some help from his colleagues, was presented to Congress on June 28th. After some discussion and revision, the Declaration was formally adopted on July 4, 1776. Engraving by Charles Toppin, Philadelphia, 1840.

George Washington at Trenton

Engraving by Alfred Jones for American Bank Note Co.
1864. Artist F. O. C. Darley.

First reading of the Declaration of Independence

Engraving by Luigi (Louis) Delnoce for American Bank Note Co., 1866.

I believe it was the great microbiologist, Louis Pasteur, who said: "Chance favors the prepared mind." To me, my chance turned up at a local antique shop within a box of "assorted prints."

The shop owner said the box was a remainder of material she had sold from the estate of a Mr. Wittenauer. It didn't take long for me to realize that some of her "prints" were, in reality, original die proofs. Additionally, a retirement certificate appeared to resemble a modern souvenir card. It was hand lettered and signed by BEP employees.

I'd like to share with the membership what that box contained, but first, a little checking was needed to identify Charles Frank Wittenauer. (Frank C. Wittenauer was the name on the retirement certificate.)

According to Gene Hessler's book, The Engraver's Line, the following is listed: "Wittenauer, Charles Frank: P[icture] Eng[raver]. b.NYC 3 Nov. 1863. He began his career with the Homer Lee BNCo ca. 1887. He also engraved for the National Steel Engraving Co.; the Hamilton BNCo (1913); and the Security BNCo. Wittenauer joined the Bureau of Engraving and Printing on 1 March 1919; he retired on 31 August 1935. His work appears on the Canal Zone 1¢, 2¢, 5¢ & 10¢ due stamps and both the Philippines 18¢ & 32¢ stamps."

[Wittenauer served 16 years in the Bureau retiring in 1935 as Superintendent of the Picture Room. There is no explanation of the reversal of his first and second names on the retirement certificate. Ed.]

The two die proofs (opposite page) initialed ["CFW"] by Wittenauer as his work show the North portico of the U.S. Treasury (top) and the familiar Bureau of Engraving and Printing building (bottom).

These are followed (page 14) by a pen & ink unsigned sketch which appears to be a model for "Wakefield" birthplace of George Washington and the subject of a vignette card still available for sale.

I was advised by the BEP that "Wakefield" was engraved by Louis S. Schofield and was completed in January 1930. As a colleague of Wittenauer, I surmise that it was given to him as a souvenir.

WAKEFIELD

["The Second Officer of an English merchant ship that had foundered in the Potomac River during a storm left the ship after she was refloated early in 1657. A year later he married Anne Pope, daughter of Colonel Nathaniel Pope, a leading planter of the area. The young officer was John Washington, destined to be the great-grandfather of President George Washington.

"After the wedding the bride's father gave the couple 700 acres of land as a wedding gift. In 1664 John moved his family to a new house at Bridges Creek, four miles east of Mattox Creek.

"John Washington prospered. He took an active interest in public affairs, served in numerous civil offices including the Virginia House of Burgesses, led a military expedition against the Indians and rose to such prominence that the name of the local Anglican parish was changed to Washington in his honor. Here his son Lawrence prospered, following his father in the House of Burgesses and serving in local offices both civil and martial.

"Lawrence's son Augustine continued this tradition of public service as he developed his own estate. In 1718 he purchased from the Abbingdon family two tracts, totaling 200 acres, on Popes Creek about one mile east of his Bridges Creek home. Here, between 1722 and 1726, he most likely enlarged the house that became the birthplace of the first President of the United States. Augustine's first wife, Jane Butler, died in 1729, leaving him with three small children. He married again, this time Mary Ball, daughter of Colonel Joseph Ball of Epping Forest. The first of their children was born on February 22, 1732. He was named George.

"Young George Washington spent the first three and one-half years of his life at the Pope Creeks Plantation. In 1735 his father moved the family to Little Hunting Creek Plantation, later known as Mount Vernon. After four years, Augustine, for business reasons, moved the family to Ferry Farm on the Rappahannock River near Fredericksburg. There, when George was eleven, his father died.

"George's half-brother, Augustine, Jr., inherited the Pope Creeks Plantation where, from time to time during the ensuing years, young George lived and grew very close to Augustine.

"Popes Creek Plantation was a lively, functioning farm. The impressions young George gathered there from the many farm activities stayed with him all his life, forming the background for his own activities at his beloved Mount Vernon.

"On Christmas Day, 1779, while General George Washington was leading the Continental Army in the fight for American independence, his birthplace accidentally caught fire and burned. George's half-nephew, William Augustine Washington, who was then master of the plantation, moved his family to another home several miles away. The birthplace was never rebuilt. For thirty-six years the site lay unattended, until George Washington Parke Custis, General Washington's adopted son, marked it with a stone tablet. As the years passed, this tablet, as well as whatever vestiges remained of the original birthplace and its out-buildings disappeared.

"In 1858 the Commonwealth of Virginia acquired the sites of the home and the nearby burying ground, but the Civil War ended any immediate plans to mark the site. In 1882 the land was donated by Virginia to the Federal government, and fourteen years later a granite shaft was erected on the site to the memory of George Washington.

"In 1923 the Wakefield National Memorial Association was formed to recover and restore the birthplace grounds. The association brought the holding to 394 acres. In 1930-31 a Memorial House and kitchen were built and furnished, and a colonial garden was established. In 1932, the year of the two hundredth anniversary of George Washington's birth, the park was officially opened and title transferred to the Federal Government. The Colonial Farm was established in 1968.

"On the actual birthplace site, the foundations, which have been covered by earth for preservation, are those of the main house of the plantation, the building in which George was born. It was a sizable, U-shaped building of at least nine rooms. The foundation outline is marked with crushed oystershell today."—Irvin Haas. Historic Homes of the American Presidents. New York: Dover, 1976.

The Memorial House, on the Potomac River 38 miles east of Frederickburg, with access from Va. 3 via Va. 204, is open to the public. The current building bears no resemblance to that of the sketch or engraving on the opposite page. It is built of brick with dormer windows "to resemble a typical home of the period of Washington's birth." Ed.]

A truly unique piece, the retirement certificate (above) measures 7"x9" and is mounted to a 10"x12" board. The vignettes are engraved, but the lettering is hand done (can you find a misspelled word?). The vignettes and rising chimney smoke are tinted red. Of great interest to me are the original autographs of some of the greatest engravers employed at the BEP.

I have asked current BEP employees about such certificates and none remember such items nor are any used today.

Last November's ASDA Mega Show held in New York City certainly was a special event to remember. To the delight of collector's, the Show was moved back to Madison Square Garden (recent shows were previously held at the Javits Convention Center) and offered a wide variety of philatelic material from which to select.

Of special interest to collectors was the welcomed participation of Paul Schmid and the American Bank Note Commemoratives. It is always a pleasure to have such a varied selection of engravings and collectibles in the marketplace as those offered by Paul's firm. Over the years, Paul and his staff have offered their unrelenting support of our hobby. A word of thanks to Paul and his staff!

ABNC's "Spider" pressman, Milt Teichman, was on hand exhibiting his special talents by "pulling" proofs at ABNC's "Spider Press" during the show. These limited-number edition proofs were later raffled to those in attendance. Milt is to be commended for his dedicated efforts at such shows and his desire to educate both collectors and newcomers on the art of "Spider Press" operations and the intaglio printing process.

Of course, no such show is complete without the participation of the Bureau of Engraving and Printing, and they didn't disappoint their followers at the "Mega Show." The friendly staff at the BEP exhibit booth were eager to meet with collectors, answer questions and provide sales assistance for collectors interested in BEP products. It's always a treat to meet with the BEP staff and those employees who contribute such a great deal of interest and support to the hobby!

The BEP was most certainly honored to participate in the show which also provided the stage for the first day of issue of their 100th Anniversary souvenir sheet, the intaglio printed $2.00 Madison stamp which was printed in a four-stamp format. (A beautiful issue, I must admit, in spite of its price!) And, it was evident that most Mega-Show collectors seemed to approve of the issue, as the lines to purchase the sheetlets never seemed to end! On hand at the BEP booth were Peter Cocci, the sheetlet's designer, and William Fleishell, who executed the intaglio vignette of the BEP "First Building" which forms the central portion of the sheetlet's heading. Both were eager to meet with collector's and answer questions. It was a great personal honor to meet and engage in conversation with both gentlemen during the event. Both were very receptive to collectors' requests to autograph first-day ceremony programs and covers.

One of the highlights of the show was the privilege of attending the First Day Ceremony, where representatives of the ASDA, USPS, BEP, and other officials were introduced and greeted by a capacity filled room. At the close of the ceremony, Official First Day Canceled Ceremony Programs were distributed to those attending. Programs contained the full $8.00 sheetlet with the FDOI cancel, text, and an enlarged view of the "First Building." The folder (6"x9" when folded) is illustrated here (opposite page).

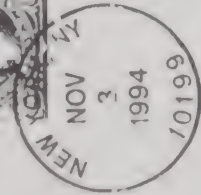

As this type of issue will not occur again until the year 2094, this BEP first day ceremony program is not only colorfully attractive, but a valued collectible as well!

[The 1995 Mega-Show has been returned to the Jacob Javits Convention Center. It is scheduled for 2-5 November. On 2 November, the first day of the show, a BEP souvenir card will be issued along with the Starfish Foundation card which was scheduled for 3 November. The latter card will debut at a ceremony at 11:30am, in the Javits Center Auditorium. The time and date were changed because the USPS has planned a First Day Ceremony for the twenty stamp (five designs) antique automobile booklet for Friday, 3 November.

Except for the convenience to transportation, I personally do not like the facilities at Madison Square Garden. They have always seemed out-dated, dirty, and crowded. In addition, the curved form of the room hampers both visual perception and physical circulation.

I assume the SCCS will have a courtesy table at the Show and that the Metro Chapter will have a meeting, probably on the first day as there are usually more members attending then (even though it's a Thursday) to get First Day cancels on their souvenir cards, than on the weekend. I plan to attend and look forward to meeting any and all members who can make it. Ed.]

FIRST DAY OF ISSUE

In its continuing efforts to support the hobby of stamp collecting, the Postal Service issues this souvenir sheet of four $2.00 stamps in conjunction with the opening of the New York MEGA stamp show. Committed to expanding the popularity and improving the quality of philately, the Postal Service participates actively in several major stamp shows each year and strives to create an exciting and innovative annual stamp program.

Featuring four identical portraits of James Madison on the stamps and an engraved image of the original red brick home of the Bureau of Engraving and Printing (BEP) at the corner of 14th Street and Independence Avenue in Washington, D.C., the souvenir sheet, designed by Peter Cocci of the BEP, pays tribute to the 100th anniversary of stamp printing by the Bureau. Up until July 1, 1894, when the BEP took over production of U.S. postage stamps, they had been printed by private banknote companies. Today, the Bureau remains the prime supplier of U.S. postage stamps.

Swap Meet - Roselle Park, NJ

October 8, 1994

S 1994 L: SCCS Metro Chapter 4 Swap Meet Raffle card, serial #1 (of 100)
Lot No. 1 in the Third Quarter Auction

The First Quarter 1995 auction was fairly typical, with over $4,750 in sales and over $900 in donations/commissions. There were no great rarities or surprises, just lots of souvenir cards that changed hands at reasonable prices. The Second Quarter 1995 auction is still in process as this listing is being prepared, so that recap/report will be deferred until the next issue.

Lot #1 in this sale is the serial #1 hand-pulled proof of the Metro Chapter 4 Swap Meet Raffle (S 1994M) and is one of only 100 cards prepared for that event. All proceeds of this lot go directly to the Chapter 4 Treasury for the benefit of the souvenir card hobby, so bid liberally for this special item. Other than that, the rest of the sale is pretty much "run of the mill" material, although there are a few nice pieces salted throughout the listing to make it worth your close consideration! Good hunting!

AUCTION BIDDING RULES

1. MAIL BID CLOSING DATE: BIDS MUST BE RECEIVED BY THE AUCTION MANAGER NO LATER THAN NOVEMBER 15, 1995.

2. Send all bids and auction correspondence to the Auction Manager: Ken Barr, P. O. Box 32541, San Jose, CA 95152. Telephone inquiries may be made until 10:00 PM Pacific time at 408-272-3247.

3. Bid by lot number only. Multiple item lots will not be broken. The earliest postmark will decide tie bids. Duplicate lots may be available; feel free to indicate if you want more than one copy of any lot(s).

4. Bid processing will be done manually, so special instructions can be given. "OR" bids ("bid $10 on lot 101 OR 102, one lot only") are acceptable, as well as "maximum expenditure" limits ("please limit total winning bids to $100 maximum"). Feel free to bid on any lots desired with the security that your winnings will be limited to the amount specified.

5. All items will be sold to the highest bidder. Bid reductions will generally not be made unless noted on special high-value lots.

6. Please observe a minimum bid of $5 per lot. Some lots have higher minimums, denoted as MB $xx in the lot description. Estimates (EV $xx) are for information only, and have either been provided by the consignor, the current SCCS catalog, or the Auction Manager.

7. Lots will be shipped via insured U. S. Mail unless otherwise requested. Postage and insurance charges will be included in the bidder's invoice.

8. Successful bidders are to remit payment in full in U. S. funds within five days of receipt of their invoice. Late payments may disqualify the bidder from participation in future auctions.

9. Returns are acceptable within ten days of receipt of shipment. Please specify reason for return (damage, mis-attribution, etc.). Mistakes on bidder's part are not sufficient reason for return.

10. The Auction Manager reserves the right to withdraw any lot and to reject unrealistic bids.

11. A "Prices Realized" list will be available shortly after the auction. All bidders and consignors will receive copies. Others may obtain one by sending a self-addressed stamped envelope to the Auction Manager.

12. Members wishing consignment information should write to the Auction Manager for details.

Thirty-one bidders submitted a total of 306 bids on 203 different lots. This is better than the Fourth Quarter 1994 sale, but not up to the level of the Third Quarter 1994 auction. Most bidders won at least one lot, with several winning on all of their bids. Many bid reductions were made due to duplicate lots being available, all sold at the lowest accepted bid.

Gross proceeds for this sale were over $4750, resulting in a net profit to the Society of almost $900 in commissions and donations.

FROM THE BUREAU

Bureau of Engraving and Printing

Reproduced below are the designs for the latest cards from the Bureau.

A souvenir card and intaglio print were released at the American Numismatic Association Convention at Anaheim, CA on 16 August 1995.

BEP Employees Invest in Their Future by Buying U.S. Savings Bonds

Since the beginning of WWII, Americans have counted on U. S. Savings Bonds to secure their future. Now, BEP employees can join in this tradition by buying U.S. Savings Bonds.

Peter H. Dahl, Director

Buy U.S. Savings Bonds

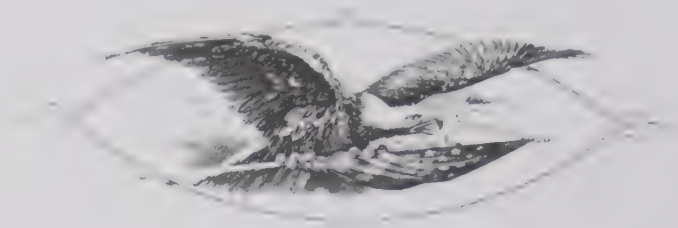

Mary Ellen Withrow, U.S. Treasurer

The 1995 Commemorative Savings Bond Card went on sale on 1 August 1995. The card was created as part of the Savings Bonds program as an incentive for BEP employees. The BEP has been among the highest achievers of Savings Bond supporters in the Federal Government.

Since the beginning of World War II, Americans have invested in their future through United States Savings Bonds. This 1995 Savings Bond card commemorates the 50th Anniversary of the end of World War II.

Featured on the card are three stamps issued during the era in support of the war effort: the 3¢ Win the War issue of 1942 (Post Office Die No. 1122); the 1¢ Four Freedoms issue of 1943 (Post Office Die No. 1129); and the 3¢ Honorable Discharge issue of 1946 (Post Office Die No. 1158). The offset background, taken from the original artwork, entitled "Joint Operation Army and Navy" by Bureau designer, William A. Roach, was never engraved.

[Note: The Savings Bond Souvenir Card, No. 45114, is NOT included in the standard subscription orders and will be removed from sale when stock is depleted or no later than 31 December 1995. Little or no advance word on this card was made available, so FDOI canceled cards must be scarce. Ed.]

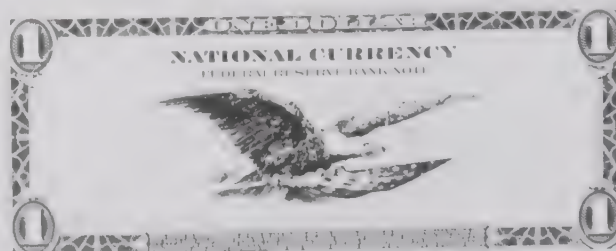

The intaglio print (above) features an eagle clutching a flag. The vignette, Miscellaneous Die No. 9918, identified by Die records simply as "Eagle," was transferred from an engraving, Die No. 7242, in 1909 by Robert Ponickau. It was also used as the back of a Victory Liberty Loan.

American Numismatic Association
Anaheim, California
August, 1995

The $1 Federal Reserve Bank Note, Series 1918, was from the second issue of Federal Reserve Bank Notes authorized by an Act of Congress on April 23, 1918. The back of the note (Die #73) was completed in May, 1918. The eagle holding the flag, was engraved in 1909 (Die #7242) by Robert Ponickau.

Unlike Federal Reserve Notes, which were obligations of the United States Government's Federal Reserve System, Federal Reserve Bank Notes were the obligation of individual Federal Reserve Banks. The money was similar to National bank notes and, according to the Federal Reserve, "of the same tenor and effect as provided for National bank notes."

The souvenir card features the $1 Federal Reserve Bank Note, Series 1918, from the second issue of Federal Reserve Bank Notes authorized by Congress in 1918. Unlike Federal Reserve Notes, which were obligations of the United States Government's Federal Reserve System, Federal Reserve Bank Notes were the obligations of individual Federal Reserve Banks. Federal Reserve Bank Notes were "inscribed National Currency" and were similar to National Bank Notes. The back of the note, Die No. 73, was completed in May 1918. The eagle holding the flag is from the same Ponickau engraving appearing on the intaglio print.

Jim Hautman's rendition of Mallards is featured on this year's Federal Duck Stamp and Duck Stamp Souvenir Card which went on sale on 1 July 1995.

Sales from the Federal Duck Stamp Program have generated over $450 million to acquire more than 4.2 million acres of wetland habitat. Waterfowl hunters, 16 years of age and older, are required to purchase the stamp annually. From the $15 paid for each stamp, 98¢ of each dollar goes directly to the purchase of migratory waterfowl habitat. The souvenir card set [stamp and card] has become a collectible to hundreds of philatelists, hunters and conservationists across the nation.

Hautman, a wildlife artist from Plymouth, MN, was the winner of the 44th Annual Federal Duck Stamp Contest held in Washington, DC, in November 1994 and his painting features a pair of Mallards. The Mallard is the most abundant and widely distributed duck in the United States, in North America, and in the Northern Hemisphere. The violet-blue speculum bordered by a pronounced white stripe at the front and back identifies the Mallard in any plumage. Its wing is broad in proportion to its length and, along with the short tail, creates the impression that the wings are set far back on its body.

The BEP has printed the duck stamp since 1934. This year's stamp was modeled from the artist's art by Bureau designers, John Murray and Peter Cocci. The interpretation from model to fine line engraving was completed by master engraver, Thomas Hipschen. Gary Slaght engraved the lettering.

[The souvenir card are printed by the BEP in multi-colored format. Unfortunately, they are NOT intaglio. Ed.]

LARRY ROLUFS BUREAU DIRECTOR

Larry E. Rolufs, 55, veteran government executive with extensive experience in printing, coinage and monetary affairs, was appointed Director of the Bureau of Engraving and printing on 24 July 1995, by Secretary of the Treasury Robert E. Rubin.

Rolufs is no stranger to the BEP, having served as Assistant Director for Operations from 1979 to 1982 under Director Harry R. Clements. He has also served as Deputy Director of the U.S. Mint and, in the Office of the Treasurer of the United States, as Director of Special Projects at a time of peak activity, December 1983-April 1986.

He was lured away in 1986 to become director of the Office of Publishing and Communications at the General Accounting Office, director of policy and planning in 1990 and, most recently, director of information management services in the Office of Management and Communication.

He holds a B.S. in printing management from California State Polytechnic University and an M.S. in printing management from South Dakota State University. Born in Springfield, MO, he is married to Lawanda Dawes.

[Mr. Rolufs succeeds Peter H. Daly (see last issue).]

CHAPTER NEWS

CHAPTER ONE

The Chapter's last meeting for the year was held at BALPEX over Labor Day weekend.

Your Editor was unable to make that event this year and, as this issue is finally going to press, no report of the event has been received.

METRO CHAPTER FOUR

The Chapter's latest meetings were both held in Secaucus, NJ at the Northeast Stamp & Cover Fest on 29 July and the East Coast Numismatic Expo on 9 September.

The Chapter now has a 3' x 5' red and blue banner courtesy of Cliff Joseph and his artist son Peter. The banner will help bring recognition to the Chapter and the Society at future shows where we are present.

Cliff Joseph also advised that at MEGA_Show, because the USPS has scheduled the release of the Antique Automobile Stamps for Friday, 3 November, the ceremony and release of the Starfish Foundation Souvenir Card [see SCJ, 15:2, p.3], intaglio produced by the IPPDS&EU has been switched to Thursday, 2 November at 11:00 a.m. at the Javits Center Auditorium.

Mike Bean had provided an estimate on the cost of producing a steel die engraving with both the lettering and the statue of liberty logo of the Chapter at about $850. The motion to have the die produced was unanimously passed.

Milt Teichman advised that the ABNCo may be producing a 200th Anniversary booklet with 11 engravings. Presently they are considering a printing of 1,000 copies, but this might change.

FDOI copies of the "nautical" card [illustrated on page 44] were distributed to Chapter members present. [They and some other Chapter cards are available by mail. See listing on page 39 and also in the intaglio listing on pages 46-48. Ed.]

GOIN' TO THE DOGS

Rich Brinton (983)

With the recent popularity of baseball and other sport-related "trading cards," it seemed only a matter of time that the U.S. Treasury Department would find its way into the world of "trading card" collectibles. As Treasury Department collectibles: "All Star Drug Detecting Dogs," I thought I'd share this new field of collecting with the membership.

This new area of collectibles first appeared in 1992, packaged inside Nabisco brand "Milk Bone Dog Biscuits." My wife, Louise, "happened" upon these colorful trading cards at the local market while shopping for "dogie treats" for our two canine family members, "Pepper" and "Rusty."

The cards individually picture U.S. Treasury Department "All Star Drug Detecting Dogs" in full color on the front, along with the dog's name, and the U.S. Treasury Department Seal in the lower right corner. The reverse side of each card contains descriptive text and drug seizure information attributed to the canine pictured. The cards are the same format and size of baseball collector cards and a complete series contains 24 cards. The author has a few duplicates which are offered to the membership. Write: Box 922, Union, NJ 07083.

[Are there really only 24 dogs doing all that work, or are these the most photogenic? Ed.]

THE SCCS SOUVENIR CARDS

William Kriebel (27)

The following is an attempt to clarify the numbering and related designs for the Souvenir Cards produced by the SCCS National and those cards produced by Chapters One and Four. All of these cards are printed by PPU personnel, primarily Mike Bean. The National cards include the PPU logo and are thus given a different ("F") number.

Advance notice of scheduled cards and their designs would be appreciated. Additions and corrections, if any, are, as always, requested. I can only make the information presented in this Journal as accurate as that of which I am aware. I would appreciate your understanding and cooperation. Thank you!
